

To the Right VVorshipful
The Heads of the respective Colleges and Halls
OF THE
Univerfity of Oxford.

YOU are desired to fignifie to your Societies, and remind them, That during the Solemnity now approaching, on the fixth day of July, All Doctors are to wear their Scarlet Gowns, and that the Exercifes will begin at one of the clock in the After-noon, after the ringing of the little Bell at St. Maries.

You are farther desired to let them know, That the rifing Semicircle of the Theater is referved for Doctors and Noble-men; and that the enclosure within the Rail, is for the Inceptors in Arts. The Gallery beyond the Doctors, in the Circular part of the Theater, will be the place of Masters. The fide Gallery West-ward, is referved for the Cambridge-men; That East-ward for Strangers. The Galleries in the Front for Ladies and Gentlewomen. The upper Gallery above the Masters, is appointed for Gentlemen-Commoners and Batchelors. Those above the Cambridge-men and Strangers for Under-Graduate Scholars of Houses and Commoners. That above the Ladies for the performances of Music. The Area, for Batlers, Servitors, and perfons of promiscuous quality,

For preferving of Order, there are befide the Curators of the Theater, appointed feveral Proctors of it; who according to the Statute in that behalf, are to take care the public peace be kept undifturb'd; and that all perfons be plac'd in their aforefaid Stations, for whose affiftance there are affigned feverall Officers and Door-keepers, to be fubfervient to them, and execute their Commands.

It is ftrictly required during the time of this Solemnity, All perfons do appear in their Gowns and Caps: and particularly, all Under-graduates, and Batchelors of Arts, comport themselves with that fobriety and modefty, as may tend to the reputation and honor of the Univerfity, upon pain of being put in the Black Book, and otherwife proceeded againft, as the exigence of their faults fhall require.

Withal it is required, That no perfon below the condition of a Gentleman or Fellow-Commoner, fhall prefume to wear a filk Cap; and that none pretend to a place beyond that which really belongs to him.

And it is farther ordered, That no Scholar refident in the Univerfity of what Condition foever, fhall be admitted into the Theater, who is not in his Gown and Cap.
